Outing Information

THE MOORS GOLF CLUB

Details Count

The company sponsored golf outing is back. With the renewed interest in retaining and up selling current customers, company-sponsored special events are returning to the forefront.

Any event that allows you and your staff to interact with your best customers is an important business tool. When done well your golf outing will enhance networking, marketing and community relations.

So what makes a company or organization sponsored golf event successful?

Details.

Success of any outing depends on close attention to detail. Taking care of the small points makes an impression and builds business for your company.

Located off from Centre Road near US Route 131 in Portage, The Moors Golf Club is easy to get to and provides a beautiful environment for entertaining.

You're Invited

At The Moors, our goal with private golf events is to exceed you and your guests expectations.

This starts with planning an event that is built to your group's needs and with Professional Outing Management Services included, you'll be receiving exceptional value for your groups dollar.

Experience first hand the personal attention to detail and outstanding customer service that will assure a successful outing and a positive reflection on your organization.

Portage Parks & Recreation

Shari Veldman
Events Coordinator
Commercial Alliance of REALTORS®

"Our members and their guests were really impressed with how organized and professional the entire staff was. They also thoroughly enjoyed the course - many commenting on its impeccable condition."

Steve Higgins
Portage Athletic Foundation

"The Moors did an outstanding job and is a First Class operation! The course is superbly conditioned and the food service fantastic. They offered excellent ideas to help make our event successful. We'll definitely return next year."

The Donald "J" Seelye
American Cancer Society Golf Outing

"For the past eight years, The Moors Golf Club has been key in making our Donald "J" Seelye Golf Outing the premiere event that it is.

The course is always in impeccable shape, the luncheon that the Grille Room staff prepares always enjoyed by our guests.

I highly recommend The Moors Golf Club."
